March 2010

Dear friends,

First of all I want to thank all of you for being such a blessing for me and for the orphans and needy children of Belarus. Even till today the children are still talking about the unforgettable Christmas they had this year. During my visits they were showing the gifts and some kids even wanted to give me some gifts they had received. Sweet, isn't it?

Last week in one of the orphanages Little Pasha ran to me crying, "Please pray for me!" His eyes were full of tears. He couldn't hold it anymore and started to cry out loud. I asked, "What happened? Did somebody hurt you, Baby?" He said, "My friend Sasha said that he found The Father in January and that he is now God's child! I too, want to be God's child. I had stepped out to go to the restroom and I missed Jesus! I too, want to be loved and call 'Sonny'! Can Jesus forgive me for going to the bathroom when He was calling me?" He began to cry even more. I was in shock. I've never seen anyone crying like this for such a reason. We prayed together. After praying with me, he kissed my cheek and ran to see Sasha. He was yelling on the way to his classroom, "Sasha! I'm God's sonny, too! Sasha! I'm God's sonny, too!"

This is Pasha and Sasha. They look alike don't you think?

In May I hope to do the birthday party for kids who were born in winter and in spring. So I ask you to please pray about this project. I can not do this on my own. Your prayers are so very important!

February was very intense and stressful. It's tax time in Belarus. There were some documents missing proving the funds which I used to minister to the orphans and needy Belarusian families. Without them I would have been in trouble. Thank you all for your prayers. Even to the very last day (it was February 25th for us) the papers never came. However, the Almighty made a miracle. Because of my persistence (I was coming to the tax office almost every day) the chief of the tax office found the solution. Now everything is ok, but I have a huge bill to pay by the 9th of April. So once again, thank you so much for the prayers!

If you'd like to help me minister to orphans and to needy families, your tax deductible donation may be sent to International Network, Inc., PO Box 346, Amarillo, TX 79105. Please designate your gift for Little Tanya's Orphans & Needy Kids.

Love, Little Tanya
